Clayton B. » (2014 ADAAP IOP Graduate)
I was so impressed with how loving & caring everyone was. I could open up & be honest without being judged. I could be myself. I felt nothing but caring & acceptance. Dan Davey's advice really helped me. He told me to listen & stop talking! I was so surprised at what I learned.

Austin C.
The staff here is very attentive, informational & they keep you on the road to recovery. The hours are flexible & the prices are affordable.

Karen
I've been in other treatment programs before where they focused just on the steps & not on you as a person. I learned a lot about myself. I learned how to love myself more. I didn't have much self esteem when I started the program. I learned I'm a good person despite my past guilt & shame.

Savion
This program is good. People are easy to get along with, being together in staying sober. I've been working out more (taking care of my body) & actually spending more time with my family!
Thank you ADAAP.

Tiffany M. » (2014 ADAAP IOP Graduate)
This program definitely works. It helped me not only how to stay sober but to want to stay sober. Hearing everyone gave me an insight as to where I want to be.

Never Give Up!

Sir Winston Churchill was asked to return & speak at his old school, Harrow (where he attended as a boy & almost flunked out). The great day finally arrived & after a lengthy introduction & numerous accolades, he slowly walked to the podium with his cane & gave the following address (quoted in full): "Young men, never give up. Never give up! Never, never-never-never-never-never give up!" And he slowly walked back to his seat using his cane to lean on.

Perseverance

When he was 7 years old, his family was forced out of their home on a legal technicality, & he had to work to help support them. At age 9, his mother died. At 22, he lost his job as a store clerk. He wanted to go to law school, but his education wasn't good enough. At 23, he went into debt to become a partner in a small store. At 26, his business partner died, leaving him a huge debt that took years to repay.

At 28, after courting a girl for 4 years, he asked her to marry him. She said, "No." At 37, on his 3rd try, he was elected to Congress, but 2 years later, he failed to be re-elected. At 47, he ran for the Senate again & lost.

At 51, he was elected president of the U.S. His name was Abraham Lincoln, a man many consider the greatest leader the country ever had.

Some people get all the breaks!

You're Special

You're special. In all the world there's nobody like you. Since the beginning of time there has never been another person like you.

Nobody has your smile, nobody has your eyes, your nose, your hair, your hands, your voice.

You're special. No one can be found who has your handwriting.

Nobody anywhere has your tastes for food, clothing, music or art.

No one sees things just as you do.

In all of time there's been no one who laughs like you, no one who cries like you, & what makes you cry or laugh will never produce identical laughter & tears from anyone else, ever.

You're the only one in all of creation who has your set of abilities.

Oh, there will always be somebody who is better at one of the things you're good at, but no one in the universe can reach the quality of your combination of talents, ideas, abilities & feelings.

Like a room full of musical instruments, some may excel alone, but none can match the symphony sound when all are played together.

You Are A Symphony!

Through all of eternity, no one will ever look, talk, walk, think or do like you.

You're special...you're rare. And in all rarity there is great value. Because of your great value, you need not attempt to imitate others...You will accept...yes, celebrate your differences.

You're special & you're beginning to realize it's no accident that you're special.

You're beginning to see that God made you special for a purpose.

God must have a job for you that no one else can do as well as you can.

Out of the billions of applicants, only one is qualified, only one has the right combination of what it takes.
